REPUBLICANS ON STILL HUNT FOR A CANDIDATE

D. H. Boatright Quietly Being Mentioned as the Man Likely to Head the City Ticket Next Month.

CANDIDATES FOR THE COUNCIL LINING UP

The Republicans of Albuquerque are steadfastly pursuing a still hunt for a candidate to head their proposed straight party ticket. Up to today no definite acceptance has been indicated as in sight. It is said on very reliable authority, however, that the matter will be placed before D. H. Boatright, well known retired merchant, upon that gentleman's return from Kansas, in the next few days, and it will then be put up to him in such a strong fashion that he will feel it his duty to accept the proffered post. Mr.
Boatright, who also is mentioned as a possible candidate for the council from the Second ward, is regarded as one of the strongest Republicans in the city. Efforts to induce Postmaster E. W. Hopkins to accept the nomination, it is said, have been abandoned, the gentleman having indicated that his decision not to run is final.

The nomination of Mayor Sellers to succeed himself, by the Democratic party, is now conceded, and it is expected that no opposition to the mayor will develop in the primaries or the convention.

Candidates and possible candidates for the convention are beginning to be lined up on both sides with some excellent material in sight for both tickets. In the First ward A. B. Betz of the Parr Meat company is a likely candidate and Sig Grunfeld, former councilman, is also being talked of. State Senator Suker, it is reported, would not be adverse to accepting a nomination. In the First the Democrats are discussing Dr. L. G. Rice, a man who has a large personal following, not only in his ward, but throughout the city, and who is now serving as city physician. A. De Tutto is also mentioned for the nomination.

The Democrats in the Second ward are going to nominate the veteran alderman Thomas Isher-wood, and his election is assured. Mr.
Isherwood has stated that he feels he has served his time, but his friends and the whole city are united in disagreeing with him and his nomination will mean his election by his usual majority. The Republicans will nominate either George P. Leonard, a man who has served in the council or D. H. Boatright, in the event Mr.
Boatright declines to head the ticket.
Sam Portfield also is mentioned as a possible candidate.

S. S. Gilbert, a well known structure, is mentioned as the Democratic candidate for the Third ward. Harry Westendorf, prominent business man it is said, will accept the nomination from the Fourth ward. Mr. Westendorf will make a strong candidate and is being urged to accept the nomination.

The Republicans are discussing Tom Lawler as the candidate for the Third ward vacancy, with T. P. Hanson also frequently discussed as a strong candidate.

In the Fourth ward Alderman John Lee Clarke is being urged to run again. Mr. Clarke's record in the council would lend him material strength as a candidate in this election, but it is said he feels he has served his country long enough and has declined to be considered.
Prostate Judge John Baron Burz, it is said, would consider the nomination if it were tendered him, but the man who seems to be most favored by Republicans and who from present indications will be nominated, is E. J. Grossie, of the Moore Beauty company. A. D. Ogle, former county surveor, has been mentioned as a candidate from the Fourth on the Republican side.

MOON'S PICTURES MAKE RECORD OF GREAT VALUE

Recognition for Wonderful Ten Years' Work of Albuquerque Photographer Now Living at Grand Canyon

Karl Moon, for many years a photographer in Albuquerque, where he began his work in Indian photography, and for several years past with the Harvey system, is gaining recognition for his work, not only with artists among whom his standing has long been high, but with his historians, who regard his Indian studies as of the greatest historical value in dealing with the vanishing red man. The cover of this week's issue of Leslie's Weekly is one of Moon's best studies, done in high color, while the magazine contains a group of magnificent Moon Indian studies, many of which are familiar to Albuquerque people. Mr. Moon in his work with the Harvey system, has been given opportunity to get in close touch with the best type of the southwestern Indian, an opportunity of which he has made the best use.

Fram Father to Son--A Precious Heritage

NATHAN STEIN, pioneer and guiding star of Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes, making, died possessed of more than a great business. He left three sons who knew it from end to end and who were eager to continue it on the lines set by the founder.

Two of these sons have survived, and they have stopped at no sacrifice of time or labor

It amounts to a lineage well
